

FELIPEGOMEZ

Felipe is an accomplished executive with over 25 years of global entrepreneurial and general management experience. He

Felipe's narrative is based on two powerful and interrelated themes that are critical to attract and retain talent, create long term value and successfully navigate uncertainty: The quest for extraordinary Performance and Entrepreneurial Mindsets.

He is a devout pianist and music has played a very important role in his life. He found a way to use music in his keynotes and with the help of a grand piano on stage, he enhances his business and leadership ideas and provides a unique and entertaining learning experience.

Felipe frequently speaks at the world's most prestigious management and leadership conferences – such as TED, WOBI Management Week, Nordic Business Forum, the global Peter Drucker Forum and the World Business Forum in New York, Sydney, Madrid, Milan, and Mexico City. He has delivered more than one thousand performances in twenty five countries.

He is the author of Attitude-E, his bestselling book, hosts Pensando en Voz Alta, a weekly interview program and is currently writing his third book: Virtuoso.

He has an MBA from the International Institute for Management Development in Switzerland where he also did a program on Leading Digital Business Transformation.
